

Blackboard Integration

Learning Management System Course Evaluation Connector

The Blackboard integrations for Class Climate make it more convenient for students and instructors to access their course evaluations from their Blackboard home page. The integrations are available as a Learning Tools Interoperability (LTI) connector, a block, and an Angel block.*

Together, Class Climate and Blackboard work to increase student response rates and to encourage honest feedback.

The student portal provides each student with a list of their open online evaluations.

Each survey opens in a new browser window. After students complete a survey, the window displays which evaluations they have completed and which are pending, so they can complete all their evaluations at once.

The instructor portal provides a list of each instructor's classes, showing the evaluation response rate and providing access to the most current results report.
